The classes offered this year are:

Romans, Then and Now – Dr. Jerry Sunney

This course will be a study of some of the important themes in Romans, looking at various ways Paul talks about why we need the gospel and how the gospel addresses those needs. We will look at ways Paul describes the salvation we have in Christ and how they help us in proclaiming the gospel today.

Crisis Care – Rev. Kenneth McCullough

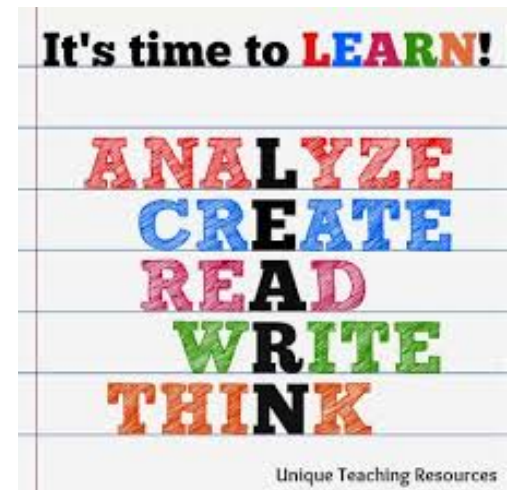

We will review some of the basic wisdom and tools applicable to many areas of pastoral care and counseling practice. Special focus will be given to various areas of mental health and dysfunction and the response, care and nurture of the sufferers. Topics addressed will include addiction, mental illness, PTSD, moral injury, divorce and adoption.

Pastoral Leadership in the 21st Century Church – Rev. Greg Alexander

Effective pastoral leadership is more than a good sermon and a pleasant pastoral manner. Increasing your congregation's capacity for ministry requires a working knowledge of the emotionality of the church as a whole using congregational systems theory. In this course, you will learn the basics of effectively using the tools of CST in your ministry.
